Comments:

TRE has changed my life for the better. It also became a great tool in my professional career. With my past experience working as a member of HIV and Health Charity and with orphans in a Children's home in South Africa, I believe TRE can make a significant difference to all who suffer trauma and the stressful challenges of everyday life.

TRE has proven its effects on a large scale with mass trauma but also in lives of people around me. My aim is to work with TRE in both of these areas, teach this unique technique to others and thus contribute to this World to be a better place to live in.
